

Silver and Plate / Wed, 28th November 2018 / Lot 310

LOT 310

A late 19th century Dutch silver spirit kettle and stand of rococo spiral scroll moulded form with overhead naturalistic and ebonized wood swing handle, the stand pierced and cast with floral garlands, on scroll legs terminating in paw feet, fitted with a burner, total height 41cm.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

310. Kettle - generally good order, spout pushed into body a little bit. Wood handle split and repaired. Otherwise in good order. Typical light surface wear and few very minor dents.

Burner and stand appear to be in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Wood benefit from a clean.

Total weight 2428g.

Created: Tue, 27th November 2018 15:50