

LOT 2623

An Art Nouveau Juventa pewter vase, circa 1902-1908, cast with a maiden emerging through narcissi on a scroll moulded base, fitted with a clear glass liner, the underside detailed 'Juventa Prima Metal', total height 35.7cm (hole to base of glass liner and minor losses to pewter).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

2623. The glass liner has a chipped out hole to its base and a tiny nick to the top edge. One top section of leaf is missing, just above the upper right maiden and there is overall minor surface wear and dents to the edges and corners. Some loss of surface in areas but otherwise no big obvious breaks or repairs.
