

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 29th November 2018 / Lot 1264

LOT 1264

A Japanese carved and pierced ivory manju netsuke, Meiji period, decorated with a figure seated on the back of a minnogame surrounded by waves, the underside with a pavilion and further waves, diameter 4.3cm, together with a Japanese carved ivory netsuke, Meiji period, modelled as a pavilion with pines and figure on horseback crossing a bridge, incised signature to base, height 3.1cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1264. Both in good condition.

Created: Thu, 29th November 2018 09:26