

Jewellery / Friday, 28th December 2018 / Lot 214

LOT 214

A French garnet and diamond ring, mounted with an oval cabochon garnet centred by a circular cut diamond within a surround of circular cut diamonds, ring size approx L, with a case.

Estimate: £1,200 - £1,800

Condition Report

214. Generally in good clean condition but has been restored in the past. Good bright white sparkly diamonds. The central cushion shaped diamond looks to be an attractive clear white stone. Cabochon garnet has typical light surface wear, but nothing significant. The garnet is of dark colour with a few small inclusions. Garnet approx 1.4cm x 1cm x 0.5cm. Mount in good condition with only typical minor surface scratches and a very small hole to the gallery. Outside of the shank bears French marks. Case is badly worn. Suggested age 1920s. Weight 7.3g.

Created: Thu, 13th December 2018 14:46