LOT 2548

Two Victorian police truncheons, both painted with 'V.R.' cyphers below crowns, with ring turned handles, length 44.5cm, together with another Victorian truncheon with indistinct painted surface, length 37cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

Truncheon inscribed 'Police' - overall minor surface wear and some more considerable wear around the top areas of the end.

Similar truncheon - has lost much of its gilding, is more extensively worn and appears to have had the cartouche painted over.

Other truncheon - with surface split and a 'baked' surface, only retaining the remnants of a crown and cypher.
