

Jewellery / Wed, 23rd January 2019 / Lot 623

LOT 623

A parcel gilt, rose cut diamond and half-pearl oval pendant, the glazed oval centre within a border of half-pearls and a rose cut diamond foliate scroll, flaming torch and quiver surround with a lyre surmount, on an associated rose cut diamond set suspension loop, length 7.8cm.

Estimate: £450 - £550

Condition Report

The half-pearl border is of an attractive silvery lustre and is in good condition. The diamonds are of fairly uniform cut, indicating that the surround to the pearl border is a comparatively modern interpretation of an antique design, this may be in association with the half-pearl surround. The piece is considered to be composite and of varying ages. Glass front and back. Weight including glass, 25.4g.

Created: Sat, 19th January 2019 10:44