

Silver and Plate / Wed, 23rd January 2019 / Lot 386

LOT 386

A set of six early 20th century Chinese silver fish knives and forks, each tapering handle decorated in relief with a dragon amidst clouds against a textured ground, maker's mark for Tuck Chang & Co of Shanghai, length of each knife 21.7cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

Generally good condition, typical light surface scratches and minor wear. No significant damage or repair. One knife has a small dent to edge of blade.

Total lot weight - 523.3g

Created: Sat, 19th January 2019 10:38