LOT 2438

A late 19th century Continental gilt metal posy holder of pierced and embossed foliate form, fitted with opposing oval mirrors above a mother-of-pearl handle, length 11.5cm (lacking tip of handle), together with another gilt metal filigree posy holder, length 13cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2438. The mirrored posy holder has the tip of the handle missing and only half the chain that holds the pin. Slightly misshapen metalwork but otherwise ok.

The other holder has a small chip to the turning at the tip of the handle but otherwise is in good general condition.
