LOT 1171

A Japanese carved ivory figure group of the three wise monkeys, Meiji period, seated side by side, length 14cm, together with a Canton ivory puzzleball and a pierced spill vase, height 7.7cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1171. Figure group - in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Few typical shrinkage cracks to top of centre monkey's head and to two of their backs.

Puzzle ball - outer case looks to be in good condition. Inner balls look like they have a couple of splits to ivory.

Spill vase - chip to rim, few hairline cracks and some loss to pierced work.
