

Tribal Art / Thu, 21st February 2019 / Lot 1812

LOT 1812

A Canadian carved grey stone figure of an Inuit, holding a fish in a clamp and with two fish slung over his back, height 28cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1812. The figure has some overall minor surface scuffs and scratches, and a very minor hairline crack to the tail of the fish. There appears to be a small break and loss to the end of the clamp that the figure is holding, leaving a rough broken surface by his hands.

Created: Mon, 18th February 2019 12:15