

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thu, 21st February 2019 / Lot 1402

LOT 1402

A creamware teapot and cover, circa 1770-80, printed in black to one side with a version of the Greatbatch print Harlequin and Columbine, to the reverse with sheep in a landscape setting, height 13.5cm, together with a creamware leaf shaped dish and two salt glaze sauce boats, late 18th century, length 13.5cm (faults and repairs).

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

1402. Tea pot and cover - in generally good condition, the lid rim, the teapot top rim and spout all have some very minor nibbles/wear.

Leaf dish - There are a number of small chips/nibble to the rim edges, both top and underside, with a small area of discolouration to the underside to the leaf at 12 o'clock and minor typical wear to the raised detail.

Sauceboat - Replacement metal handle, with a hairline crack where the terminal joins the body and there is a small chip to the pouring lip rim edge.

Other Sauceboat - In generally good condition.

Created: Mon, 18th February 2019 12:19