

Jewellery / Wed, 20th February 2019 / Lot 688

LOT 688

A Victorian brooch, designed as an owl's mask with boot button eyes, the back glazed with a locket compartment, width 3cm, four further brooches, a plated stickpin, designed as a dog's head, part of a ruby set turban pin, a small blue glass seal, a pair of turquoise matrix earrings and a group of other similar items.

Estimate: £50 - £70

---

Condition Report

688. Owl brooch - generally good condition, some glue residue where eyes have been re-glued/replaced. Typical light surface wear.

Dog head stick pin - some typical wear, but generally good.

Other items - in generally good order with some typical wear and minor faults.

Created: Mon, 18th February 2019 16:53