

Jewellery / Wed, 20th February 2019 / Lot 681

LOT 681

A collection of mostly Scottish vari-coloured agate set and silver jewellery, comprising three large circular brooches, an axe brooch, a thistle spray brooch, three further brooches, a Celtic cross, detailed 'Iona silver', a faceted baton link necklace, length 35cm, and a panel link bracelet on a snap clasp, length 17.5cm (clasp damaged).

Estimate: £100 - £150

---

Condition Report

681. Panelled bracelet - good condition, clasp slightly misshapen.

Baton bracelet - good condition. Typical light wear and very minor chips to facets.

2 ring brooches - good condition, some wear to mounts.

Larger banded agate ring brooch with ropetwist mount - cracked and wear to mounts.

Rectangular brooch - good condition.

Thistle brooch - good condition.

Aye brooch - good condition.

Cross pendant - good condition, some wear.

2 circular brooches - repairs to stones.

Created: Mon, 18th February 2019 16:55