LOT 1274

A Chinese hardwood centre table, late Qing dynasty, the rectangular panelled top above a carved and pierced openwork frieze and archaic scroll apron, raised on a pair of openwork supports with framed panels united by carved and pierced scroll motifs, terminating in scroll feet, length 132cm, depth 43.5cm, height 78cm (missing section of apron to one side and one scroll foot).

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

1274. One side is missing its apron/frieze and one scroll foot is missing. Some joints and feet re-glued, otherwise typical surface scratches and wear but a nice quality table.
