

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 21st March 2019 / Lot 1402

LOT 1402

Three pieces of Moorcroft Queen's Choice pattern pottery, circa 2000, designed by Emma Bossons, comprising a baluster vase, height 15.5cm, a diminutive vase, height 8cm, and a pin dish, diameter 11.8cm, impressed and painted marks to bases, two boxed.

Estimate: £120 - £180

---

Condition Report

1402. Baluster vase has pinhead burst air bubble to glaze on rim exterior, otherwise all in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Each are first quality.

Created: Tue, 12th March 2019 11:52