LOT 2584

A late 19th/early 20th century ivory and gilt metal mounted conductor's baton, the handle fitted with a foliate hinged compartment inset with a pink quartz cabochon, the central mount inscribed 'Presented to J.H. Green Esq the Hon conductor of the Hull Musical Union Club', length 53cm (possibly later fitted handle).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2584. General condition is good, however the top handle section appears to be a later addition. Reasonably well worked, but not quite the same quality as the other two mounts. Otherwise some minor wear.
