

Furniture / Friday, 22nd March 2019 / Lot 2050

LOT 2050

A 19th century mahogany 'D' end dining table, the satinwood crossbanded top with central drop-flap section, raised on square tapering legs, height 71cm, length 310cm, depth 127cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

---

Condition Report

2050. Made in a George III style in the late 19th century, with various typical alterations to underneath with added supports and runners. The tops of the table are fairly good with only fairly minor scuffs and marks. Legs are also a bit scratched, but otherwise are ok. There are no clips present.

Created: Tue, 12th March 2019 12:21