

Art Pottery / Friday, 22nd March 2019 / Lot 4126

LOT 4126

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware circular dish, late 19th century, decorated by Hannah Barlow, monogrammed, with a central study of a horse within a mottled green glazed border edged with white scrollwork, impressed and incised marks to base, diameter 20.8cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

4126. Glazed over manufacturing chip to underside rim edge at 7 o'clock (approx 1cm x 0.5cm), only noticeable as a minute blemish to the rim edge when viewed from the front . Otherwise, in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 12th March 2019 12:24