

Art Pottery / Friday, 22nd March 2019 / Lot 4130

LOT 4130

A Lauder pottery jardinière, circa 1900, the cream glazed bulbous body decorated with blue convolvulus flowers and leaves between blue borders, the frill rim applied with six scroll handles, incised mark to base, height 16.5cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

4130. Overall crazing to glaze with some staining to interior and minor scratches to high points on exterior, e.g. handles. Indistinct angled haircrack amidst crazing to base interior, not visible to exterior.

Created: Tue, 12th March 2019 12:29