

Studio Pottery / Friday, 22nd March 2019 / Lot 4164

LOT 4164

A Jitka Palmer studio pottery bowl, dated 1987, the circular body with cut and shaped rim, raised on a circular foot, incised and painted to the interior with a boy playing a violin against a cream ground, to the exterior with a young girl with long flowing ponytail surrounded by incised stars, incised mark to base, diameter 27cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

4164. Typical fine crazing to glaze, otherwise in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 12th March 2019 12:34