

Studio Pottery / Friday, 22nd March 2019 / Lot 4143

LOT 4143

A small Derek Davis studio pottery stoneware pot and cover of cylindrical form with a flattened disc cover, covered in a sang-de-boeuf glaze splashed with turquoise patches, black painted signature to base, height 4.5cm, together with a Derek Davis jug, covered in a mottled blue ash glaze, height 8cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

4143. The footrim of the pouring vessel has a few very tiny nicks to the corners. The pot and covers appears to be in good condition.

Created: Wed, 13th March 2019 14:35