

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 21st March 2019 / Lot 1449

LOT 1449

Two Moorcroft enamels, circa 2002, comprising a vase, decorated with palm trees and foliage, height 10.6cm, and a pillbox and cover, decorated with Egyptian style figures, height 4.5cm, each with printed marks to base, one boxed.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1449. A couple of extremely minor surface scratches to the base of the vase, but not noticeable unless magnified under an eye glass. Otherwise both in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Fri, 15th March 2019 13:37