

Clocks and Barometers / Thursday, 21st March 2019 / Lot 1171

LOT 1171

A George V oak diminutive longcase clock with eight day movement chiming on gongs, the square brass dial with engraved foliate centre, silvered chapter rings and pierced gilt spandrels, the case inset with burr walnut panels to hood, trunk door and base, height 149cm, with pendulum.

Estimate: £150 - £200

---

Condition Report

1171. Hood is missing its glass to the hinge door and hinge is loose. Case in generally fair condition with typical scuffs, scratches and wear, but no significant damage. Silvered chapter ring is worn. The movement is not currently running.

Created: Mon, 18th March 2019 10:33