

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 21st March 2019 / Lot 1601

LOT 1601

A set of six Venetian glass two-handled bowls and saucer dishes, early 20th century, with green and white striped cane decoration and aventurine flecks, the gilt enriched handles each centred by a putto head, diameter of dishes 15.5cm, together with three matched dishes.

Estimate: £100 - £150

---

Condition Report

1601. Bowls - one foot intact but badly cracked. One with crack across one handle, but again intact.
Dishes - all in good condition.

Created: Mon, 18th March 2019 14:34