LOT 409

A late Victorian plated and cut glass Betjemann's Patent three bottle tantalus frame, one side detailed 'The Tantalus', length 24.5cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

409. The plated mounts are a bit dirty, but no significant damage or repairs. One of the glass uprights has a shallow chip to inside edge (approx 2.5cm x 1cm). There are other small chips to edges of glass sides and base. One end of the glass base has had a chip and been polished out. Each bottle aperture has a diameter of approx 5cm and would fit a bottle and stopper with a total height of approx 12.5cm-13cm. No key.
