

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 21st March 2019 / Lot 1482

LOT 1482

A group of mostly Worcester and New Hall porcelain teawares, late 18th century, including a Worcester coffee cup, enamelled and gilt with a house amongst trees, height 5.9cm, a New Hall trio, printed with neoclassical figures, and a tea bowl and saucer, decorated with chinoiserie figures (minor faults and restoration). Provenance: from the David Battie Collection.

Estimate: £100 - £150

---

Condition Report

1482. Cup painted with quail - restoration to footrim.

Flight Worcester plate - rivet repaired.

Pearlware cup - chips and restoration to rim.

Chinoiserie cup/saucer - chips and restoration to rim.

Others in good condition, with only minor surface wear.

Created: Wed, 20th March 2019 10:50