

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 21st March 2019 / Lot 1626

LOT 1626

A part suite of Continental enameled drinking glasses, in the style of Lobmeyr, early to mid-20th century, the octagonal bowls enameled with running animals surrounded by stylized foliage, raised on olive tinted stems with wrythen moulded shoulder knobs and circular feet, comprising three champagne coupes, two large wines, four smaller wines and four hock, height of champagne 17.5cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1626. All glasses appear to be in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light wear to gilt on rims, but nothing of any real significance.

Created: Wed, 20th March 2019 16:58