

Arts and Crafts Metalwork and Applied Art / Friday, 22nd March 2019 / Lot 4104

LOT 4104

A late 19th century American Aesthetic period plate mounted and opaline glass water jug by Simpson Hall Miller & Co, the spout and handle cast with rosettes and fishes, the glass body painted with a winter landscape within bands of palmette sprays, height 34cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

4104. The finial on the lid is slightly bent and the lid has a few minor dents. The main body has some surface wear and the footrim has dents to the sides. The glass seems ok with only a few minor scuffs.

Created: Fri, 22nd March 2019 09:12