LOT 1090

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain punchbowl, Qianlong period, the exterior finely painted with opposing figural panels within gilt scroll framing, on a cell diaper ground, diameter 26.2cm, height 11.5cm (faint hairline to rim).

Estimate: £300 - £400

Condition Report

1090. There is a faint 6.5cm hairline crack to the rim. Some typical wear to gilt particularly around the inner rim, and worse around the foot. Some wear to enamels on interior. Otherwise the bowl is in good condition with nice quality decoration and good vibrant colours.
