

Glassware / Thursday, 18th April 2019 / Lot 1625

LOT 1625

A large duck egg blue French opaline glass vase, 19th century, the tapered body applied with an oval panel, painted after Pierre Olivier Joseph Coomans with Her Favourite Pet, within a gilded edge and white and gilt enameled foliate frame, to the reverse a winged figure with foliate lower half in white and gilt, raised on a similarly decorated circular foot beneath the flared neck, painted 'Pet Bird Coomans' to base, height 56cm, converted to electricity (minor loss to edge of panel).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1625. Missing approx 2.5cm long slither of gilded edge of painted panel at 3 o'clock. Otherwise in good condition with very light and minimal surface wear only noticeable on very close inspection.

Created: Wed, 10th April 2019 16:55