

Militaria, Medals and Awards / Thursday, 18th April 2019 / Lot 1892

LOT 1892

A late 19th century Indian dhal shield, the painted front with four shaped decorative bosses, the reverse with old indistinctly hand-written label describing the manufacturing process of dhals and stating 'Given to me by General Wm. ... August 1900', diameter 53.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1892. Overall surface deterioration and cracking, with some additional flaking and loss of surface, particularly to the edges. Loss to the surface on the near edges and also the straps have been cut to the handles.

Created: Thu, 11th April 2019 11:54