

Jewellery / Wednesday, 17th April 2019 / Lot 716

LOT 716

A late Victorian gold and half-pearl set oval hinged bangle, circa 1890, the front mounted with rows of half-pearls in a slanting design, on a snap clasp, fitted with a safety chain, inside width 5.5cm (one half-pearl lacking and safety chain broken).

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

716. The bangle is somewhat tarnished and would benefit from careful professional cleaning. It otherwise looks in attractive original condition. The pearls of an attractive silvery lustre. The safety chain is broken. Weight 14.2g.

Created: Thu, 11th April 2019 13:22