LOT 1201

A Chinese brass mounted shagreen travelling chopsticks case, late Qing dynasty, fitted with a knife, two chopsticks and a bone pick, length 31cm, together with a Chinese shagreen cased opium pipe with metal mount, length 59cm (lacking bowl), and a Japanese parasol.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1201. Pipe in generally good order. Shagreen has a chip out of it just to the side of the metal mount and has a few other minor blemishes but is otherwise full intact and good colour. Metal mounts are a bit dirty but ok. Ivory end pieces are good.
