

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 18th April 2019 / Lot 1180

LOT 1180

A Chinese famille verte enamelled biscuit porcelain two-handled vase, Kangxi style but 19th century, of shouldered flattened rectangular form, each side well painted with opposing figural panels, the narrow sides filled with precious objects, the waisted neck flanked by a pair of applied lingzhi handles, unmarked, height 33.7cm (glued repair to corner of rim).

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

1180. One corner section of rim broken out and reglued with some minor chipping loss to edges of the break. Small repair to small section of stem to one handle, otherwise vase is in good condition. Enamels are good, fresh and vibrant.

See our website for extra images including close up feature.

Created: Mon, 15th April 2019 12:03