

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Thursday, 18th April 2019 / Lot 1802

LOT 1802

A 19th century Javanese kris with wavy double-edged blade, blade length 55cm, pierced and cut-work decorated hilt with chased and engraved floral decoration, woven silvered metal bound grip, shaped ivory pommel cap, with a shaped hardwood sheath.

Estimate: £300 - £400

---

Condition Report

1802. There are a few tiny nicks to the edge of the blade, but other blade is ok. The sword does not seem to fit right in to the scabbard and sits just proud by about 1cm.

Created: Mon, 15th April 2019 12:17