

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 18th April 2019 / Lot 1202

LOT 1202

A group of five Chinese porcelain snuff bottles, late Qing dynasty and later, including a famille rose relief moulded bottle, mark of Qianlong but late 19th century, decorated with opposing figural scenes within robin's egg glazed borders, height 7.7cm (chipped), a cylindrical bottle, painted with a dragon, height 7.9cm (cracked), and a flattened ogee baluster bottle, mark of Daoguang but later, painted with grasshoppers, height 6.4cm (some with faults).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1202. Black ground - lacking stopper, large chip to foot, glaze blemish to side, significant surface wear.

Insect decorated - lacking stopper, small chip to rim.

Figural relief decorated - flat chip and smaller fritting to rim. Chipping to footrim. Typical light surface wear.

Iron red cylindrical - old restoration to rim edge, minor fritting and surface wear.

Dragon decorated - vertical crack running length of body, minor nick to footrim.

Created: Mon, 15th April 2019 12:55