

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 18th April 2019 / Lot 1413

LOT 1413

A Meissen porcelain white glazed horse's head, circa 1949, designed by Erich Oehme, raised on a block wooden plinth, crossed swords in underglaze and incised mark to side of base, total height 22.5cm (chip to ear).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1413. Small chip to tip of one ear and to edge of mane, otherwise good condition.

Created: Tue, 16th April 2019 15:33