

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 22nd May 2019 / Lot 437

LOT 437

A George III silver three-piece tea set of half-reeded cushion form, comprising teapot, milk jug and sugar bowl, London 1811 by Solomon Hougham, length of teapot 31cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

---

Condition Report

437. Generally the tea set is in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface wear and scratches you would expect commensurate with age, and a few very minor dents. The handle is slightly loose as it is missing a couple of securing pins. Typical light wear to gilt interiors and marks slightly rubbed on milk and sugar but still perfectly readable. Total weight 1188g. No engravings or erasures.

Created: Wed, 15th May 2019 11:12