

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 23rd May 2019 / Lot 1406

LOT 1406

Two pieces of Wedgwood crimson dip jasperware, circa 1910, comprising a tapered cylindrical jug and a Dutch shape jug, each sprigged in white with classical figures and emblems, impressed marks to bases, height 17cm and 14cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

1406. Dutch shaped jug - a small portion of sprigged decoration missing to one figure, right of the spout and other smaller losses. Some minor firing cracks to sprigged decoration, otherwise in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Cylindrical jug - minor firing crack to sprigged decoration and a little dirty, otherwise in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Fri, 17th May 2019 11:47