

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 23rd May 2019 / Lot 1438

LOT 1438

A group of mostly English blue printed earthenwares, early 19th century and later, including a set of six tea bowls and matching saucers by William Smith & Co, decorated with two seated female figures within a fruiting vine border, a Spode 'Bridge of Lucano' pattern plate, a saucer, decorated with a girl walking beside a sheep, and two Chinese export ware saucers (minor faults).

Estimate: £50 - £100

---

Condition Report

1438. Couple of chips to spout, otherwise in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Height - 19cm.

Diameter of body approx 14cm.

Created: Fri, 17th May 2019 11:52