

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 23rd May 2019 / Lot 1403

LOT 1403

A Royal Worcester porcelain blush ground nautilus shell vase, circa 1898, of typical form with coral stem and shell encrusted circular base, puce printed and impressed marks to base, height 20.5cm.

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

1403. Restoration to the stem, previously broken off and repaired, repainting and re-gilding evident. Some wear to the gilding.

Created: Tue, 21st May 2019 10:44