

Glassware / Thursday, 20th June 2019 / Lot 1747

LOT 1747

An Art Deco uranium glass decanter and stopper, 1920s/30s, of tapered lobed shape with faceted ring neck beneath the blown clear glass star cut stopper, height 38cm, together with a uranium glass scent bottle and stopper, height 13cm, and a vaseline glass bottle with plated rim, height 21.5cm.

Estimate: £60 - £80

Condition Report

1747. Large decanter and stopper - tiny nicks to base end of stopper which has good snug fit. Tiny bruise above and to faceted collar, only noticeable on very close inspection, similarly a few indistinct nicks to base edge. Small decanter and stopper - a few minor bruises to facet edges, stopper similarly, nothing of any real significance.

Bottle - lacking stopper. A number of small surface scratches with ingrained dirt, otherwise ok.

Created: Thu, 13th June 2019 12:41