

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 20th June 2019 / Lot 1428

LOT 1428

Two Staffordshire porcelain dog whistles, circa 1830, both modelled as the head of a white hound with black markings and painted facial details, length of each 5cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1428. Both in overall good condition with no restoration. Each with some staining and typical surface wear. One with minor firing crack and small chip to mouth piece - please see the images on our website which show all the condition issues.

Created: Thu, 13th June 2019 12:46