

Jewellery / Wednesday, 19th June 2019 / Lot 667

LOT 667

A Victorian gold, half-pearl and rose cut diamond set brooch in a quatrefoil shaped design, mounted with the principal half-pearl within a surround of rose cut diamonds and further set with half-pearls, width 3.5cm (as converted from a pendant).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

667. The half-pearls have an attractive silvery lustre. The rose diamonds slightly draw colour. Note the brooch pin fittings have been later added to the back of the piece and that the original half-pearl set suspension loop is lacking. The piece would benefit from careful professional cleaning. Weight 13.7g.

Created: Thu, 13th June 2019 13:30