LOT 70

Circle of William Hogarth - A Doctor's Surgery, 18th century oil on canvas, 46cm x 69.6cm, within a carved gilt frame.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

70. Considerable, but relatively light, scratches to the bottom left corner, seems to mostly affect the varnish, but here is some overpainting around this area, so it may have been heavier in places. Some other overpainting, the majority filling craquelure or to details, presumably replacing details affected by previous cleans. Craquelure throughout, but paint seems stable. Canvas a little slack on stretcher. Some subsequent light surface dirt. Gilt frame in relatively good condition, but with minor scuffs to extremities.
