

Jewellery / Wednesday, 19th June 2019 / Lot 519

LOT 519

A Victorian gold and citrine single stone brooch, pierced in a scrolling shaped oval design, mounted with the oval cut citrine to the centre, the front fitted with four loops (drops lacking), together with five small oval porcelain buttons, each depicting a portrait within a cut steel surround.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

519. Brooch - generally good condition with small repairs to surround. Pin slightly misshapen. Citrine in good condition.

Buttons in fair condition with some rusting to cut steel surround.

Created: Mon, 17th June 2019 10:40