LOT 1410

An unusual and rare Sèvres Republican bleu-nouveau-ground two-handled goblet and saucer, circa 1793, reserved with yellow ground oval panels containing symbols of France, including the Phrygian cap, plumb bob and fasces (liberty, equality, fraternity), within gilded frames against the gilt dotted ground, the rims with a garland of leaves entwined with a tricolour ribbon, blue painted 'RF' monogram and 'IN' gilder's mark for Jean Chauvaux with symbol for Philippe Throuet, and incised '41' to saucer, diameter of saucer 16.3cm. Note: a similar goblet and saucer, or tasse à l'etrusque et soucoupe, was sold at Bonhams 18th June 2014, Lot 172.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

1410. Both pieces in good condition overall with no chips, cracks or repairs. There are some very minor and light surface scratches to the blue ground and well of the saucer and similar surface scratches to the cup interior. The gilding and enamels are good with incredibly minor spots of spots of wear only noticeable on very close inspection.
