Condition Report

2. Relined, previously cleaned and restored with filling and overpainting. Paint a little 'thin' in areas. U.V. examination highlights considerable overpainting, most prevalent to the sky in the top right corner, the right hand side of the central mountain and to many of the details in the foreground presumably lost in previous cleans. Some paint separation to dark areas. Some craquelure, but paint appears stable. Some minor subsequent surface dirt. Varnish a little uneven.

Frame ok. It has been repainted 'gilt' which has hidden the majority of scuffs and minor loss of composition.
