

Glassware / Thursday, 20th June 2019 / Lot 1703

LOT 1703

A set of six cut glass rinsers, early 19th century, each of gently tapered cylindrical shape with single pouring lip, cut with a hobnail band above vertical facets, average height 11.5cm.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

1703. All in generally good condition. Two with small chips on the base. All with typical surface wear.

Created: Wed, 19th June 2019 11:01