LOT 2210

A large late Victorian oak extending dining table, the octagonal moulded edge top fitted with four additional leaves, raised on turned and reeded legs terminating in brass caps and china castors, height 74cm, extended length 390cm, width 154cm, together with a set of six early 20th century oak framed dining chairs.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

Table is in generally good order with a few minor surface cracks and very minor loss to the mouldings on the frieze. Otherwise minor scuffs and marks. The winding mechanism and leaves are also in good order. The chairs are not really of the same quality and have a few small cracks across the backs. The seats have later inset hardwood panels.
